DEDICATION

To Mr. Patterson, the Superintendent of Norwalk Schools, we dedicate this ANNUAL of the class of 1928.

Through his efforts the High School has increased the number of courses given, the faculty has grown in number, and the new Community High has been built.

His great interest in the students not only as a body, but individually, has gained him their friendship and respect. We, the class of '28, who have benefitted by his influence and help throughout the twelve years of our school life, wish to show our appreciation by dedicating this, our year book, to him.

FOREWORD

The ANNUAL this year is really the Seniors'. There was no Annual Staff as in years gone by. The different departments were divided among the Seniors. Some got the advertising, others the features, literary, etc.

We wish to express our gratitude to Mrs. Caroline B. Strutton for the use of her drawings for carrying out the art theme of our book.

To the townspeople we owe our appreciation for making our book possible.

Violin At Midnight

Night dropping tears of dew upon the grass
Pulses with passion tangible and sweet;
A sobbing rises where the small waves meet
The rocks that wait them as the ages pass.
Winds, still and fragrant, brood above the sea,
The soft harmonious sounds echo and blend
Now a new note steals thru the dark to lend
A theme to the triumphant symphony.

The moon in splendor silent and serene
Rides down the sombre highways of the sky;
The eastern starlight forms a golden stair.
Nearby he bares his heart in song, unseen;
Yearning incarnate in a melody
Floats like a silver thread upon the air.

—M. J. '28.

Recompense

The crowded hustle of a city street
Holds fast my restive feet,
The while I dream my dreams, longing to stray
Into the lands of glamour far away.
I hope the distant suns are bright above
My wandering love.

Now in my ears the autumn sirens sing:
"Follow the errant spring!
We know a land that blooms now like a rose.
Follow the summer as the swallow goes...."
Well that the South is blossoming and fair,
My love is there.

—M. J. '28.

'Twill be a day of joy and sorrow,
When we leave our School forever,
Joy of thoughts for our tomorrow,
Sorrow that our ways must sever.

Many years we've spent together,
But our ways are soon to part;
Happy years of full endeavor,
Leave their print on every heart.

Miss Clark

Miss (Hap) Clark, who turned out our very fine girls' team this year, is well known for her ability as a basketball coach and player.

Her winning personality has gained her friends throughout the school. This factor she has also used to a great advantage in the development of her many successful teams.

She deserves no small amount of praise for her work.

Mr. Ellis

Mr. (Pinky) Ellis, who has been with N. H. S. for three years, has turned out some boys' teams which will not be forgotten by the school for many years.

Mr. Ellis came to N. H. S. from Mt. Union College where he made a fine record in athletics.

He has shown N. H. S. that he has remarkable ability for the development of fine teams from raw material.

We owe him a vote of thanks for the time he has devoted to this work.

Mr. Garcia

Mr. Garcia has developed track to such an extent in the high school that it is a sport which is recognized by the students as being as important as football and basketball.

Mr. Garcia, this year, has devoted much of his time to building of a team has been carrying off honors in all meets.

For these services, N. H. S. owes Mr. Garcia the heartiest of thanks.

Mr. Seibel

Mr. (Sox) Seibel has been very successful in N. H. S. as football coach and physical director. He has also produced teams of the finest quality from a comparatively limited amount of material.

He has always devoted himself whole-heartedly to producing teams that will uphold the honor of N. H. S.

To this object he has always turned the faces of his men, who have responded nobly.

For many years he has sponsored the boys' gym exhibitions, which are always attended by a great audience.

Cheer Leaders

The enthusiasm behind a team depends a great deal on the cheer leaders. Norwalk can certainly be proud of hers. "Brit" and "Twed" have backed the teams to their utmost. Many times when a team needed encouragement, Brit and Tweed were there to do it; to get the crowd yelling and cheering the team on.

Just think what a game would be like without cheer leaders. There would be no organized cheering—just a ceaseless babble. To the cheer leaders goes the responsibilty of co-ordinated cheering; to keep everybody under control and responding to their efforts.

Student Managers

Norwalk High has always been fortunate in having good business managers and this year was no exception. Jeff Homerick and Carey Root were manager and assistant manager of the boys' football, basketball and track teams. Helen Miller served very ably in her capacity as manager of the girls' basketball team.

To the managers goes the duty of keeping the teams fit. The equipment must always be ready to use and in the bst condition. A team owes a great deal to its managers.

The Home Economic Club which is affiliated with the National Home Economics Club, has as its purpose to create interest in Home Economics work, to become better informed on the subject, to co-operate and assist with other activities of the school and to aid in furthering the work of the school in the home.

Novel and helpful club meetings have been held monthly, consisting among others, of an Oriental Party with a returned Chinese teacher as speaker and a chop suey dinner, a backwards party, and a radio Valentine Party.

The Club entertained the eighth grade girls from Norwalk and rural schools to aid them in getting acquainted before starting in their Freshman year.

The girls also entertained their mothers and the teachers at an afternoon tea.

The officers for the year were Pres., Annabel Burley; V. Pres., Hilda Knoll; Secy., Betty Kotasek.

The club feels that it has had a successful year but it hopes to be of greater service to its members and to Norwalk High School in future years.

The Norwalk High School Commercial Club was organized in 1927 by the Juniors and Seniors taking the Commercial Course. The officers for this year are: Wm. Mills, president; Rose Anne Gebhardt, vice-president; Thelma Fadley, secretary; Norine Hollis, treasurer, and Ora Husted, reporter.

The Club has had many interesting and instructive meetings at which part of the time was given to talks on business subjects by representative business men, papers and debates by members of the Club, and part to games, stunts, and various kinds of social diversions. The May meeting was guest night at which a clever play was put on by some of the girls.

Contributions to the High School Endowment Fund established by the Club, is one of the material aims of the organization, and it also maintains an employment bureau for high school students. The Club stands ready to co-operate in any school activity that needs its assistance.

Miss Agatha Hogan, Miss Edith Clark, and Mrs. Ethel Foster act as advisors.

Girl Reserves

CABINET AND GROUP LEADERS

The Girl Reserve Club was organized in Norwalk High last year, and has had a very active membership. The girls have been divided into six groups under the leadership of Senior girls, which meet in the weeks alternating with the general meetings. The groups have had their special activities and there have been some larger projects carried out by the whole club.

A Mother-Daughter banquet was held, managed by the girls and the Father-Son banquet was served by them also. Helen Miller's group presented a play at Assembly, and others carried out many interesting plans for creating a working fund in the treasury.

The chief aims of the club are to create a friendly spirit among all the girls, to cultivate a well-rounded personality in body, mind and spirit, and to be of service in the school and community.

Bottom Row—Bob Campbell (treasurer); George Homerick, Mills (V. Pres); Byron Campbell, Schneerer, Rogers, Anderson, Angell (secretary); Paul Homerick, Seibel (advisor).

The officers of the Hi-Y for the first semester were: Morley Price, president; Guilbert Martin, vice president; Carl Ford, secretary; Reed Taylor, treasurer.

The officers for the second semester were: Glenwood Weidemaier, president; William Mills, vice president; William Angell, secretary; Robert Campbell, treasurer.

The club this year, has co-operated in many charitable affairs, among them being distribution of baskets of food at Thanksgiving for the Elks, and the donation of toys and candy at Christmas to the Children's Home. Also the Club sponsored the annual Father-Son Banquet this spring, which was held in the gymnasium.

Norwalk High School in 1923 obtained a charter to become affiliated with the National Honor Society. Since then, a certain per cent of the students from the upper fourth of each of the two upper classes is chosen each year.

The qualities which the person chosen must have are: Scholarship, Leadership, Character and Service.

Nearly all schools in larger cities are affiliated with the Society, so that a student is signally honored when selected for membership.

The Pageant—1928

"The Land of Make Believe" was the title of this year's School Pageant, which was given in the auditorium on May 25th. This very fanciful production was written and directed by Mrs. Franz, who was assisted by Velores Burdue, '27. Two hundred children took part in the songs and dances which carried the spectators back to the childhood delights of the Sugar Plum Tree, Toyland, and the Lollipop Sea. The school orchestra added greatly to the pleasure of the audience by rendering a well-arranged accompaniment. High school students who took part in the pageant were: Hilda Wilson, Ruth Patterson, Marian James, Mildred Hosford, Grace Dooley, Harriet Wilcox, Mardelle Lamm, Bonnadel Leadbetter.

Art Week

Norwalk's second annual Art Week was observed October 16 to 23. It was, as usual, instigated by the public school art department, but the fine co-operation of the townspeople made it a real community event.

There were interesting art events of different kinds during the week. In the English classes a good deal of interest was aroused by the essay contest on the subject, "A Beauty Spot of Norwalk." A fine framed print was awarded to Hilda Wilson and to Catharine Nerby, winners respectively in the Senior and Junior High School groups. An exhibition of the work of modern American illustrators, loaned by the American Federation of Arts, which hung at the Parish House, and another of reproductions of famous paintings which was shown at the High School, both attracted many visitors during the week. Miss Ann V. Horton, of the Cleveland Museum of Art, gave two very interesting talks in connection with the former exhibit.

On Wednesday evening an entertainment of "Living Picture Tableaux" was charmingly presented by pupils of the grade schools. This program was much enhanced by the musical accompaniment furnished by the High School orchestra.

Thursday evening was "Music Night," with a concert by the band and a number of selections by the Norwalk Music Club. Some dancing numbers under Mrs. Franz's direction were an added attraction. Friday night brought the play "Art, Where Art Thou," put on by the girls of the Home Economics department, and a little skit by Miss Peckham's Junior High girls called "The Style Sheet."

Miss Mixture's class of 7A pupils won the prize picture for the largest per capita sale of season tickets. From the ticket sale sufficient funds were realized to make possible the purchase of about twenty new pictures for our schools. These have been beautifully framed in the manual training department and distributed among the different school buildings in town. Five have been hung in the High School, four in Junior High and the balance in the grade buildings.

The Annual Exhibition of hand work of the Norwalk Schools went on display May 31st. Departments of Art, Manual Training, Home Economics and Geography and the Opportunity and Light Saving Schools and Kindergartens, all had large exhibits, besides smaller exhibits from isolated classes. The work displayed was of a high standard and reflects much credit on both teachers and pupils.

Radio Club

The Radio Club was founded in 1922. Its activities consist of communication by radio with other stations, and teaching people to become operators.

Its officers are: R. Homer Lawrence, president; Dave Wilkinson, vice-president; Don Young, secretary, and Paul Wilkinson, treasurer.

At present, two of its members, Homer Lawrence and Dave Weisberg hold operator's licenses.

⚜ ⚜ ⚜

Since we do not have a printed calendar for this year, brief mention should be made of some other affairs that do not belong to any particular organization.

⚜ ⚜ ⚜

Hallowe'en Party

A lively Hallowe'en party was given by the Hi-Y and Girl Reserves Oct. 31. Clever refreshments and unique ideas of entrance, entertainment and favors were the chief features of a very enjoyable evening.

Music Week

The Norwalk schools participated in celebrating the National Music Week—May 7, 8. On Monday night a concert was given by the orchestra assisted by the Norwalk Music Club and on Tuesday by the High School Glee Club and the Band. On Thursday afternoon in Assembly a music memory contest covering more than thirty selections was given. Betty Bell won first prize, Ruth Patterson, second.

⚜ ⚜ ⚜

"N" Party

The "N" Party in honor of all team members winning letters this year was held May 18. The Freshmen and and Sophomores were supposed to entertain with stunts. The former were very successful, but the Sophomores seemed to have lost part of their cast, for the stunt did not appear. The great feature of the evening was the auction sale of lost and found articles conducted by Brit Young. Music for dancing was furnished by the Merrymakers.

The Seniors wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the following, who have made possible by their financial support, the publication of this Annual:

To Mr. Patterson and Mr. Cole, the school, with our compliments.

To the teachers, our sincere sympathy, as they will never again meet our equal.

To the whole school our best wishes and our dignity, which we will now need no more.

Our personal bequests are as follows:

Annabel Atherton leaves her disgust for men to Helen Sutton.

Clayton Bailey saw a sign post out in the country which said: This will take you to Norwalk. Clayton sat on that sign for two hours and then said: "I wonder when it's going to start?"

Rose—Dear, I'm in love.

Pete (pushing her away)—Aw, why didn't you tell me that before?

It was an annual custom for an old English lord to take all of the newsboys of London down to the Thames for a swim. One of the lads who was exceedingly dirty, received the following comment from a companion:

"Gee, Jimmy! You're dirty this year."

"Yes," was the reply, "I missed the boat last year!"

N. H. S. Graduates for 1928

We wish to congratulate you upon completing your High School course this year. You are now trying to decide what line of work you will follow in life. A business career offers great opportunities but you should make thorough preparation for it.

Place of Oberlin Business College

This school has come to occupy a great place in the education of young men and women for business and office positions. It is a special school of its kind and has stood at the head of the Business Colleges of Ohio for many years. It is one of the few, if not the only Business College in Ohio to limit its attendance to High School graduates. Its graduates are filling fine positions all over the country. The present State Superintendent of Banks of Ohio, Elbert H. Blair, is a graduate of this school. This was the first Business College in Ohio to be placed upon the accredited List of Ohio Colleges by the State Department of Public Instruction.

Mr. Patterson was playing a very indifferent game of golf. For the third time that afternoon h ehad foozled his shot. Turning to the caddy, he remarked, "It seems I'm off my game today." Good heavens," said the caddy, "have you played before?"

A Scotchman came to a doctor and asked him to remove some slivers from his tongue. After the doctor had done so, he announced that his bill for the job was $3.00. The Scotchman objected. "Well," said the doctor, "if you'll tell me how you got those slivers in your tongue, I won't charge you anything."

"It was like this," said the Scotchman, "I had a bottle of fine whiskey, and I dropped it on the floor."

M. L. Betts After Losing 17 Pounds.

The butcher was rather surprised when a slim young woman entered the shop and asked for 17 pounds of beef. All the same, he cut off the joint and put it on the scales.

"Will you take it with you, or shall I send it to the house?" he inquired.

"Oh," she murmured, blushing prettily. "I don't want to buy it. You see the doctor said I had lost 17 pounds and I wanted to see what it looked like in a lump."

"Jack," said Jan while teaching her Sunday School class, "You shouldn't talk like that to your playmate. Had you ever thought of heaping coals of fire on his head?"

"No ma'am, I hadn't, but it's a peach of an idea."

A baby once cried for the moon,
So they got a toy moon for their pet—
But the babe wasn't satisfied yet;
It cried for the star spangled dipper.
Did they promise to haul down the skies?
No, they tired of its heavenly cries
And made it see stars with a slipper!

Perduyn—Say, Bob, got a pen I can borrow?

Bob Gawne—Sure thing.

Perduyn—Got a sheet of writing paper?

Bob—Reckon so.

Perduyn—Going past the mail box when you go home?

Bob—Yes.

Perduyn—Wait a minute till I finish this letter, will you?

Bob—All right.

Perduyn—Want to lend me a stamp.

Bob—Guess so.

Perduyn—Much obliged. Say, what is the name of that girl you were with last night?

Brit Young—I am not well, doctor.

Doctor—How do you live?

Brit—Like any other poor dog—work like a horse all day, I am always hungry as a wolf, then I am tired as a dog and sleep like a bear.

Doctor—You don't need me. You had better consult a veterinary.

Larry was in a very conversational mood in the study hall. Finally Mr. Beck became exasperated, and scolded her for talking. A few minutes later she asked permission to speak to a friend. Turning to one of the pupils, Mr. Beck said wearily, "She talks two-thirds of the time, and asks to talk the rest of the time."
